MONTH OF PRAYER

WEEK #4 (7/22 - 7/28)

AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, AS WE ALSO HAVE FORGIVEN OUR DEBTORS

To pray for reconciliation with God and each other is to invite disruption into our lives. Christian forgiveness wades through the messiness of our own and others' mistakes rather than sweeping them under the rug, puts God in charge rather than clings to a false sense of control, and invites us to shed our fallen nature and participate in the divine character rather than remain unchanged.

- MONDAY: As a church, we desire to be a place and a people that experience God's grace, embody it with one another, and share it with the world. So, today we pray that God's grace would transform us as a people and that it would have ripple effects inside and outside of our body.
- TUESDAY: We live in a divided world - left vs right, republican vs democrat, conservative vs progressive, rural vs urban, rich vs poor. There are also divides along gender, race, education, etc. Today, we pray that our city would be disrupted by God's grace and experience true reconciliation.
- WEDNESDAY: One of the great lies Satan sells us is that we have to get our life together before coming to God. We often have to unlearn it so that we can experience the true nature of grace - that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8). Today, we pray that our kids and teens would be so immersed in the true narrative of grace that Satan's lie never has hold on them.
- THURSDAY: Amidst a world of resume building and social media, college students feel an immense pressure to be perfect on their own accord. Today we pray that God would open their hearts to experience His grace so that they would no longer be shackled by their striving but might find rest in Him.
- FRIDAY: Family wounds run the deepest as it is those who are closest to us have the greatest capacity to hurt us. This makes it all the more difficult and yet all the more important for families to reconcile. So, today we pray that our families would experience God's grace and embody it with each other.
- SATURDAY: Pray the Lord's Prayer throughout your day. Let it shape you.
- SUNDAY: Gather at CV to pray the Lord's Prayer altogether during worship.
